Gifts in-kind . . . help us operate our Home more efficiently

For more than 100 years, the community's generosity has always helped support the Home through in-kind gifts. The cost of caring for the elderly poor in a manner respectful of their dignity far exceeds the income received from the Resident's pensions, Social Security or Medicaid. And so, in order to cover the constant deficit, we rely on God's Providence and the support of the community. Begging has always been a daily part of our lives since Saint Jeanne Jugan, our Foundress, went door-to-door asking for the provisions she needed for her "little family."
